Unhealthy Needed

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (UPI)—An unhealthy personality may be good in business, according to psychiatrist Dr. Alan A. McLean. "If we were to have only 'normal' people we would have nothing but mediocrity in American business and industry. We need the unusual, possibly the unhealthy, personality in a work setting," he said.

CHECKS are IT!
this week at Wilson's

Young, lively, exhilarating checks in blue-and-white, black and white, grey, brown-and-white . . . in fine checks, box checks, houndstooth checks. Crisp freshness woven out of wonderful imported English worsted flannel—so comfortable, so fashionable—nothing feels and looks so right for so many occasions. There are suits . . . one and two-piece dresses . . . dress and jacket ensembles . . . all with that "Wilson look" of fine imported quality and tailoring. Many are "only ones," just waiting for you.

For Men . . .
with a taste for luxury!
Made-to-Measure SUITS TAKE THE SPOTLIGHT this week at "Wilson's"

They're here by the score — the new samples. You'll be delighted with the selection of fabrics . . . all hand-picked for their "Wilson look" of quality. New weaves, new stripes and patterns, new shades in Britain's finest Tropicals, Worsteds, Tweeds and Twists. Silks, too, from Italy. Meticulously tailored to your taste, you'll be thrilled with your suit. In keeping with the Wilson tradition of quality, it will be hand-made by one of the four top tailors in Canada—whichever you choose: Warren K. Cook, Shiffer-Hillman, Lombardi, from $95 . . . by Freedman's, from $85. Now is the time to order yours for the seasons ahead.
